

Wood-Stock Kitchens & Baths

Design Survey

To Our Customers,

A major renovation can become a major undertaking. The issues of style and function, and how it revolves around lifestyles, are very unique. In order to accommodate each individual's needs and desires, it is helpful to take time to ask yourself a few preliminary questions in the planning stage

Name: _____

Address: _____

City / State / Zip Code _____

Telephone: _____ Work: _____

● _____ New construction _____ Remodel _____ Desired completion date

● How many people/pets live in your household?
____ Adults _____ Teenagers _____ Children _____ Pets

● Is the primary person using this space?
____ Left handed _____ Right handed _____ Height

● What are the problems with your present space?

____ Insufficient storage	____ Insufficient seating
____ Inadequate counter space	____ Outdated
____ Inefficient layout	____ Inadequate lighting fixtures
____ Inadequate natural light	____ Insufficient electrical outlets
____ Inaccessible corners	____ Do not like countertops
____ Do not like cabinets	____ Do not like overall style
____ Bad traffic flow	Other _____

● How often do you cook? _____ Times per week _____ Gourmet dishes? _____ Specialty cooking?

● How often do you bake? _____ Times per week ● Do you prefer a designated work space? _____

● How many people cook at the same time? _____ ● How often do you entertain? _____ Times per week

● Is there congestion while cooking? _____ ● Is kitchen heavily used? _____ Times per week

- 27 Park Street Essex Junction Vermont 05452 ph. 802-878-5333 fax 802-878-7169